Island. The first meal of the day sets the stage for the wide range of activities which await every visitor.

Banning House of Two Harbors

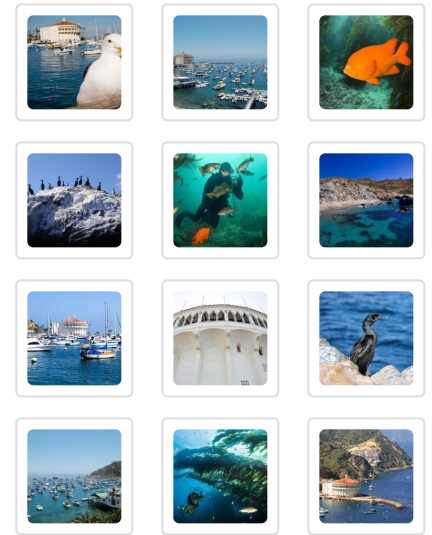

Banning House of Two Harbors is our featured choice in the Catalina Island bed and breakfast category. This charming lodge can even accommodate people with special occasions and events. The fact that Banning House is located away from the busier town of Avalon plays to its advantage. The seclusion of Two Harbors offers a more laid-back environment with still plenty of charm and history.

Banning House of Two Harbors is a tranquil lodge located on a hilltop overlooking Two Harbors, Catalina. The lodge is surrounded by palm trees which brings that cool environment you so deserve. Banning House is a great relaxing spot and for your convenience the common rooms have free WIFI too. It is a perfect place to relax and unwind as you have a clear view of the harbor from the comfort of your courtyard. The lodge has 12 well-furnished guest rooms with private bathrooms, a sun room and a common lodge room where you can “set a spell” as you read your favorite book.

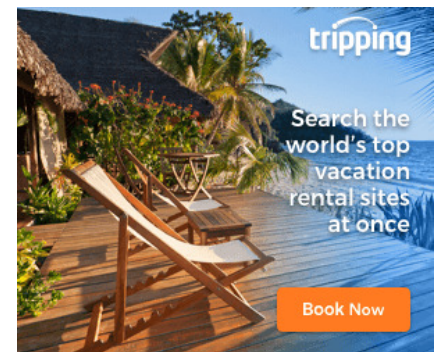

Accommodations

The rooms are spacious with a queen bed and two twin beds. Each room also has a large closet and a generous bathroom. The guest is provided with a continental hot breakfast served every morning in the dining room. You have a chance to have an evening wine and cheese served between 5 and 6 pm on a daily basis. Banning House staffs are courteous and kind to all the guests making you feel so much at home.

There are also two beach cottages with beautiful ocean views that offer the full range of vacation rental benefits. These cottages are affectionately named the Villa Santa Rosa and the Villa Santa Cruz. So, whether you stay in one of the rentals or at the lodge, this is definitely a very friendly Catalina Island bed and breakfast facility.

Recreational Activities

Banning House of Two Harbors offers a variety of recreational activities that make your stay memorable. They offer a recreational center and some of the activities include hiking, kayaking, scuba diving, and the beach. You can also rent snorkeling gear at Two Harbors Dive Shop. There many things to do during the day that will complement your visit.

Accessibility

Banning House lodge is accessible from the Two Harbors village by a van shuttle which operates 9 am and 7 pm every day, Sunday through Thursday and up to 8 pm on Fridays and Saturdays. There are also taxis that you can use to travel to this bed and breakfast. Getting to Catalina Island and the lodge is easiest through the Catalina Express ferry from the mainland at San Pedro to Two Harbors.

As you can see, it is worth the trip to make it to this splendid Catalina Island bed and breakfast lodge. The Two Harbors area offers a whole other experience that compliments your stay. You can spend your whole visit in this small town or split time here with a stay in Avalon. Either way, you can't lose with the Banning House of Two Harbors!
