Enjoy a variety of award-winning wines from the oldest wine-producing region in the nation. Whether sampling red or white wines, groups will find flavors to suit every taste in Las Cruces. Tour vineyards, sip by the glass or plan a tasting to discover the longstanding tradition of New Mexico wine.

EXPLORE

Home to national monuments and state parks with hiking and biking trails for all skill levels, Las Cruces has a moderate climate perfect for year-round outdoor recreation. Take in the scenic views and get back to nature on one of the area's many trails. Be sure to plan a day trip to nearby White Sands National Park to see the bucket list-worthy sights of the gypsum dunes.

TASTE

Acclaimed by foodies across the globe, Las Cruces is known for its famed red and green chiles. Add a little spice to your palate and try local New Mexican favorites like chile rellenos, posole, green chile cheeseburgers and enchiladas.

In addition to New Mexican dishes, enjoy traditional Mexican food, farm-to-table concepts, French pastries, Greek cuisine and everything in between. The mouthwatering flavors don't end with food. Treat yourself at local craft breweries, distilleries and coffee roasters.
